

Hark! There Comes a Whisper

Words: Fanny Crosby, 1877. Music: Howard Doane.

Hark! there comes a whisper

Stealing on thine ear:

'Tis the Savior calling,

Soft, soft and clear.

Refrain

"Give thy heart to Me,

Once I died for thee";

Hark! Hark! thy Savior calls:

Come, sinner, come!

With that voice so gentle,

Dost thou hear Him say?

"Tell Me all thy sorrows;

Come, come away!"

Refrain

Wouldst thou find a refuge

For thy soul oppressed?

Jesus kindly answers,

"I am thy rest."

Refrain

At the cross of Jesus,

Let thy burden fall;

While He gently whispers,

"I'll bear it all."
