

Alzheimer's

Alzheimer's

This is our anthem, this is our song:
We're singing it now for
Soon 'twill be gone
'Tis writ on our tee shirts,
Our rollicking rune
If only, if only
We reckon the tune.

Eastern religions extol the cow
And gurus evoke the Here and the Now.
Alzheimer's shows us this powerful fact
That Hereing and Nowing
Is where it is at.
