The Camp Song (Home on the Range)

The Camp Song (Home on the Range)

Oh, give me my home
With its comforts and foam,
With a stove and a show'r and some lights;
Where seldom at all do you trip up and fall,
Where the stars are not needed for lights.
Home! Give me my home!
Without snakes and the ground's not so hard.
Where Mom cooks and slaves
And takes care of my days,
While I sleep or I play in the yard.
