

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Everybody Works at My House But My Old Man

Everybody Works at My House But My Old Man

(Jesse Fuller)

Everybody works but father.

He sits around all day,

Pokes his feet in the fire,

Smoking his pipe of clay.

Mama now she takes in the washing.

So does sister Ann.

Everybody works at my house

But my old man!

Sung by Jesse Fuller on "Brother Lowdown," Fantasy FCD-24707-2, 1963.

JD

July01