

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Good Peanuts

Good Peanuts

He who hath those good peanuts
And giveth his neighbor none
He shall have none of my good peanuts
When his good peanuts are gone

Won't it be joyful, joyful, joyful
Won't it be joyful, son
Won't it be joyful, joyful, joyful
When his good peanuts are gone

He who hath those soft sweet soda crackers
And giveth his neighbor none
He shall have none of my sweet soft soda crackers
When his sweet soft soda crackers are gone

He who hath those rich, red, ripe, raspberry shortcakes
And giveth his neighbor none
He shall have none of my rich, red, ripe, raspberry shortcakes
When his rich, red, ripe, raspberry shortcakes are gone

He who hath those Plymouth rock, all wool and a yard wide, guaranteed not to rip and to tear workpants
And giveth his neighbor none
He shall have none of my Plymouth rock, all wool and a yard wide,
guaranteed not to rip and to tear workpants
When his good Plymouth rock, all wool and a yard wide, guaranteed not to rip and to tear workpants are gone recorded by Dildine Family

SOF