

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

James James Morrison Morrison

James James Morrison Morrison

James James Morrison Morrison Weatherby George DuPree

Took great care of his mother though he was only three

James James said to his mother:

"Mother," he said, said he

"You must never go down to the end of the town,

if you don't go down with me.

Don't ever go down to the end of the town,

if you don't go down with me."

James James Morrison's mother put on her golden gown

James James Morrison's mother, she drove to the end of the town

James James Morrison's mother

She said to herself, said she

"Well, I can get down to the end of the town

And be back in time for tea.

Well, I can get down to the end of the town

And be back in time for tea."

King John put up a notice: "Lost, stolen or strayed,

James James Morrison's mother,

She seems to have been mislaid

Wandering vaguely all about quite of her own accord

She tried to get down to the end of the town--

Forty shillings reward.

She tried to get down to the end of the town--

Forty shillings reward.

James James Morrison Morrison, commonly known as "Jim"

Said to his other relations not to go blaming him

For James James said to his mother

"Mother", he said, said he

"Don't ever go down to the end of the town,

If you don't go down with me.

You must never go down to the end of the town,

If you don't go down with me."

Now James James Morrison's mother,

She hasn't been heard of since,

King John sent down to give his regrets,

And so did the queen and the prince,

King John, somebody told me,

Said to a man he knew,

"If people go down to the end of the town,

Well what can anyone do?
If people go down to the end of the town,
Well what can anyone do?"

from AA Milne
JY