

Just a Bug at Twilight

Just a Bug at Twilight
(David Diamond)

Just a bug at twilight,
When the lights are low
And the other fellows
Get their coats and go.

You'll be here till midnight,
Maybe one or two,
And if you don't fix it,
It's the boot for you.

Reading dumps till morning,
Writing code till ten,
Punching keys till lunch time,
Watch it bomb again.

Just a bug at twilight....
