Love Song

Love Song

(Arthur Wimperis, Mischa Spoliansky, 1935)

cho: Where you go, my heart will follow after There's no road you can escape me by.
Joy or woe, your sorrow and your laughter
I will share with you until I die.

There's a new magic in the air,
Magic everywhere,
Magic in the breeze among the trees
It is you,
Ever since you came, nothing is the same
Just to speak your name, says me
Your flame (?)
Ever since I fell underneath your spell
Limongo (? -sounds like a proper name)

CHORUS

(from the film, Sanders of the River)
