Singin' in the Kitchen

Singin' in the Kitchen
(Shel Silverstein)

Here we go singing in the kitchen
All together singing in the kitchen
Everybody singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Mama and Daddy singing in the kitchen
Baby's laughing singing in the kitchen
All the kids singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Supper's done and the table's clear
Baby wants a bottle and I want a beer
Lord I sure am glad I'm here
Where there's lots of love to share

Now clap hands and everybody sing
Dishes clang and the banjo rings
There's gravy on these guitar strings
But I don't really care

'Cause here we are singing in the kitchen
All together singing in the kitchen
Everybody singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

I'll play the comb and you play the spoons
I'll sing the words and you sing the tune
We'll wake up the old man in the moon
'Cause we sing so loud

I'll hug you, you hug your Mother
Snuggle up close to one another
Just like bread on a piece of butter
Lord it makes me feel so proud

'Cause here we are singing in the kitchen
All together singing in the kitchen
Everybody singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Now the fireplace embers glowing red

Everybody's tired and it's time for bed
Baby's nodding his little head
So let's sing quietly now

(whispers)

Who do we love singing in the kitchen
Can't get enough singing in the kitchen
Whole lot of love singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Mama and Daddy singing in the kitchen
Little bitty baby singing in the kitchen
All the kids singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Here we go singing in the kitchen
All together singing in the kitchen
Everybody singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans

Mama and Daddy singing in the kitchen
Baby laughing singing in the kitchen
All the kids singing in the kitchen
Banging on the pots and pans
