Skye Boat Song (Parody)

Skye Boat Song (Parody)

Speed bonnie boat like a bird on the wing
Onward the sailors cry
Carry the twit who thought he'd be king
Over the sea to Skye.

Many the lad fought on that day trying to bring you back
You left the fight fast to save your own ass
Now Flora is on the rack etc

You went back to France you sing and you dance
With no thought of Flora's fate
You dressed like a whore to leave Scotlands shore
But your followers watch and wait....etc
