Springtime's Here Again-1938

Regal Zonophone MR2735 Gifford/Cliffe/Formby

Whats that something in the air, makes us feel that we dont care
How it clings everyone sings, wanna go places and do things.

Why do girls wear scanty clothes, little dinky bibs and bows
Show a lot of these and those, Springtimes here again.
Why are couples coy and shy, why do they just sit and sigh
Hoping that the grass is dry, springtimes here again.

Birds are singing, joy bells ringing, good times bringing you
In the season theres a reason for the things we do.

Why does our tomcat go on spec, wear a blue bow round his neck
And come home looking like a wreck, Springtimes here again.
Why does Mrs. Brown set to, make her parlour look like new
And press the lodgers trousers too, Springtimes here again.

Why do puppies bark and bite, trot around the trees in sight
And wag their rudders with delight, Springtimes here again

Birds are singing, joy bells ringing, good times bringing you
In the season theres a reason for the things we do.

Why do lovers whisper "Let's, then look over maisonettes
And ask the price of bassinettes, Springtimes here again
Why does artful Mr. Binks, call on Miss Matilda Jinks,
And want to play at tiddlywinks, Springtimes here again

Why do cocks crow loud and shrill, giving all the hens a thrill
And new laid eggs get cheaper still, Springtimes here again
Joy bells ringing, birds are singing, good times bringing you
In the season theres a reason for the things we do.

Why does our curate Mr Stocks call around on Goldilocks
And rattle his collecting box springtimes here again.
