You Can't Love Two Girls At The Same Time-1942

Regal Zonophone MR3663 Formby/Godfrey

I've got two girls right on my mind, I take them with me everywhere about Though those girls are lovely and fine, theres a little thing that I've found out.

Oh, you cant love two girls at the same time
No you can't love two girls at once

If you think you can, you must be a superman
For if you share their passions one must go without her ration
For you cant love two girls at the same time
If you do you're a twillop or a dunce
I took the girls out courting, we giggled and we chaffed
I squeezed one girl and kissed her, she went goo-goo and laughed
The other one sat fidgeting and looked at us so daft
Oh you can't love two girls at once.

While I was loving one girl, the other I'd to spurn
I didn't think about her, but I've a lot to learn
She tapped me on the shoulder, and said what about my turn?"
Oh you can't love two girls at once.

Oh, you cant love two girls at the same time
No you can't love two girls at once
If you think you can, you must be a superman
For if you share their passions one must go without her ration
For you cant love two girls at the same time
If you do you're a twillop or a dunce

I took the girls out hiking, they simply love to hike
One girl then started tickling, she was a saucy tyke
The other one said "Now then Maggie, share and share alike."
Oh you can't love two girls at once.
No, you cant love two girls at the same time
No you can't love two girls at once
If you think you can, you must be a superman
For if you share their passions one must go without her ration

Oh you cant love two girls at the same time
If you do you're a twillop or a dunce
I said to them "Now, now girls, for me you mustn't curse."
They asked me for a penny ee, and then I feared the worst
But they started tossing, up to we which one would kiss me first
Oh you can't love two girls at once.
No sir, you can't love two girls at once.
