When youre on leave you like a bit of fluff, when youre on leave you like a bit of stuff
When youre on leave you never get enough, go chase me round the barrack square.
Youd be far better off in a home, youd be far better off in a home
Youd be far better off, far better off, far better off in a home

Our Annies joined up a week come Saturday
Annies joined up, the Army shouts hooray,
Shes a F.A.N.Y cos shes fanny that way
So we chased her all around the barrack square.

But shes be far better off in a home, shes be far better off in a home
Shed be far better off, far better off, far better off in a home.

Mussolini has been a perfect ass,
Like old Goering hes all puffed up with gas
Soon well kick him right up the Brenner Pass
Then well chase him all round the barrack square

Causes hed be far better off in a home, hed be far better off in a home
Hed be far better off, far better off, far better off in a home.

Theres a sergeant by the name of Moses
Getting fatter and everybody knows
Its a year now since the sergeant saw his toes
And he chases himself around the barrack square

Hed be far better off in a home, hed be far better off in a home
Hed be far better off, far better off, far better off in a home

When its over the crowds will shout and bawl
When its over back to civvies we will crawl
The Sergeant Major can stick his passes on the wall
Then chase himself around the barrack square

Cos youll be far better off in a home, youll be far better off in a home
Youll be far better off, far better off, far better off in a home
