

King Of Glory - song lyrics

Christian music from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

King Of Glory
Old Gospel Song

1. Look outside your heart, my friend, a King's waiting to come in.
It's been so long since He left His throne to be your friend.
He gave up His wealth above just to prove His love.
Open your heart and let the King of Glory come in.

CHORUS:

The King of Glory, stands outside your door.
Who is this King, the King of Glory is Christ the Lord.
He wants to walk with you, He wants to talk with you.
Open your heart and let the King of Glory come in.

2. Now look at His crown of thorns, hear the mob laugh and scorn.
The royal hands and feet of this man are scarred for your sins.
Feel of His wounded side, He loves you so much that He died.
So open your heart and let the King of Glory come in.

CHORUS: twice