

Down by the Fountain of His Love
Joel Bond, 1909.

I am living, daily living 'neath the shelter of His grace,
Down by the fountain of His love;
And the storms of doubt and trial ne'er can hide His blessed face,
Down by the fountain of His love.

Refrain

Down by the fountain I will ever stay,
Down where His presence lights the weary way;
I shall lay my burdens down and receive the royal crown,
Down by the fountain of His love.

I am trusting in His promises which never, never fail,
Down by the fountain of His love;
And by keeping close to Jesus I shall weather every gale,
Down by the fountain of His love.

Refrain

I am singing hallelujah as the moments onward flee,
Down by the fountain of His love;
And my soul is filled with glory for the peace He gives to me,
Down by the fountain of His love.

Refrain