

He Supplieth All of My Need
Thomas Chisholm, 1914.
Charles Gabriel.

All of my need He freely supplieth,
Day after day His goodness I prove;
Mercies unfailing, new every morning,
Tell me of God's unchangeable love.

Refrain

God hath laid help on One that is mighty,
One who is friend and brother indeed;
Nothing have I, yet I am contented,
For He supplieth all of my need.

All of my need He freely supplieth,
Wisdom and guidance, strength as my day;
Grace for each trial, comfort in sorrow,
Blessed communion all of the way.

Refrain

All of my need He freely supplieth,
There's not a void that He cannot feel;
Never a burden He cannot lighten,
Never a heartache He cannot heal.

Refrain

All of my need He freely supplieth,
I shall not want, whatever betide;
He that delivered Christ for my ransom,
With Him will all things surely provide.
