

Someone's Last Call

Edna Worrell, 1911.

Clarence Strouse.

Come, O come to the blessed Savior.

List, O list to His loving call.

Offering pardon, pardon from sin to all;

O come, He gives pardon from sin to all, to all.

Refrain

Come, come to Jesus,

Come ere this moment takes flight;

It may be now someone's last call, last call tonight.

Deep, deep deep in the heart there whispers

God's own voice to each wayward child;

Heed it! O heed it! Be no more sin beguiled,

O heed His voice, be now no more beguiled, beguiled.

Refrain

Long, long, long have you tried to stifle

Yearnings sweet to a life more pure;

Quench them no longer, but in God rest secure;

O strive no more, but in God rest secure, secure.

Refrain

Now, now, now as the Spirit stirs you,

Harden not your fast melting heart;

Take, take salvation, else shall your chance depart;

O take it now, else shall your chance depart, depart.
