

Wonderful Love
Civilla Martin, 1906.
George Stebbins.

In love He redeemed me, the Savior divine,
I'm trusting in Him, life eternal is mine;
Unworthy the least of His gifts to receive
Salvation is mine as on Him I believe.

Refrain

Wonderful, wonderful love!
He came from the glory above,
To seek and to save, and to make me His own;
O wonderful, wonderful love!

In love He redeemed me through shedding of blood,
From "far away" places he brought me to God;
He found me a sinner with no one to save,
And graciously, lovingly my sins forgave.

Refrain

In love He redeemed me and made me His own,
An heir to His glory, His kingdom and throne;
Now anthems of joy to His name I will sing,
Adoring my Savior, my Lord and my king.
