

Everywhere I Go

1.

Here I am a climber, I'm climbing up the mountain.

I'm searching for that city fair that I can call my home.

Even though the hills are steep, even though the valleys deep,

I have a friend to hold my hand, and I'll not climb alone.

Cho.

Everywhere I go the Lord is always with me

Everywhere I go He's right there by my side.

He is constantly cheering me, pressing toward the victory,

He is always leading me, everywhere I go.

2.

It's been a long, hard journey, while trudging through the darkness,

But my sights are set on heaven's door, and I'll get there, I know.

Though I may be weary and the outlook may be dreary,

But the uplook points to victory and Jesus said it's so.
