Traditional Irish Music www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

The Green Willow

С G G Say weeping green willow will you tell me why Em A7 D7 On the spur of the moment when I said good bye C G G I saw her walking away out of sight Em Am D7 G Now I regretfully think of my wife

 $\begin{array}{cccc} (Chorus) \\ C & G \\ Willow green willow as your branches hang low \\ Em & A7 & D7 \\ You seem to be sighing for the sadness I know \\ G & C & G \\ I love her forever, 'till the day that I die \\ Em & Am7 & D7 & G \\ Untill the green willow looks up to the sky \end{array}$

All around the city the daytime seems dark As I watch all the couples walk down through the park Missed oppertunities never come twice Darling, I'm longing, I'm paying the price

Today was tomorrow just yesterday Time goes so slowly now she's gone away Time must go on, though my heart feels the pain Perhaps some day soon, she will come back again