

How Deep is the Ocean-Julie London.txt

How Deep is the Ocean-Julie London

Words & Music by Irving Berlin

Recorded by Julie London, 1956

Em                    B+                    Em7                    C#m7-5
How much do I love you?    I'll tell you no lie --
Bm                    F#7                    Bm                    D9
How deep is the ocean?    How high is the sky?
G                    G7                    C9                    Cm7
How many times a day do I think of you?
Gdim                A7                    Edim Cdim                    D7
How many roses, are sprinkled with dew?

Em                    B+                    Em7                    C#m7-5
How far would I travel    to be where you are?
Bm                    F#7                    Bm                    D9
How far is the journey    from here to a star?
G                    G7 E7-9                    E7                    Am                    Am+7                    Am7                    C#m7-5
And if I ev - er lost you,    how much would I cry?
G                    G/F#                    A9                    D7                    Am7                    D7                    G
How deep is the ocean?    How high is the sky?