The image displays a musical score for the piece "Springfield Mountain". It is written in 3/4 time, indicated by the time signature at the beginning of the treble staff. The score consists of three parts:

- Treble Staff: Contains the main melody, written in a standard musical notation with eighth and sixteenth notes, including some beamed sixteenth notes and a triplet of eighth notes.
- Simplified Melody: A second staff below the treble staff shows a simplified version of the melody using only quarter and eighth notes.
- Fretboard Diagram: The bottom staff is a guitar-style fretboard diagram. It shows the fret numbers for each finger (1-4) on each string. The strings are numbered 1 to 6 from top to bottom. The diagram includes various fret numbers (e.g., 3, 5, 7, 9, 10, 12) and indicates fingerings with numbers 1-4.
