

AIN'T YOUR MEMORY GOT NO PRIDE AT ALL

I woke up with her in my arms this morning and God knows I love her over all

As she whispered she loved me your memory appeared

Ain't your mem'ry got no pride at all

Tonight as I lay here touching her sweet body and the good familiar feeling
I recall

As I closed my eyes to kiss her your memory appeared

Ain't your mem'ry got no pride at all

You were here we loved now you're gone

Why can't you let bygones be bygones and stay gone

You always find the wrong time to come around and call

Ain't your mem'ry got no pride at all ain't your mem'ry got no pride at all
