

Anyone Ought To Know

A D A
 Sittin in a road side tavern the only cowboy seated here alone
 E A
 Every night a lonely lady wants to tell me all about her broken home
 D

A
 It's like they can see inside my mind they act as if they know I'll understand

E
 A
 I guess they know it when the hear my name and feel it when they touch my tremblin hand

D
 Ahhh but if anyone ought to know
 A
 The loneliness of a rolling stone
 E
 It ought to be me

A
 I've always been alone
 D
 If anyone ought to know

A
 About things like hurt and misery
 E
 It ought to be me

Bm A
 Lord in heaven knows it ought to be me

D
 If anyone ought to know
 A
 The loneliness of a rolling stone
 E
 It ought to be me

A
 That's the reason I'm all alone
 D
 If anyone ought to know

A
 About things like hurt and misery
 E
 It ought to be me

Bm A
 Lord in heaven knows it ought to be me
