

Everybody's Had the Blues

Album: Someday We'll Look Back / I Love Dixie Blues

Everybody's had the blues sometimes and
Everybody knows the tune.
And everybody knows the way I'm feelin' cause
Everybody's had the blues.

A lonely, song someone is gone,
A story old as time.
Love, hate, or want and wait till misery fills your mind.
But everybody knows the way I'm fellin' cause
Everybody's had the blues.
