Written by Floyd Tillman

C C7 F
They say a house is just half a house without a woman

C G7
And now I guess that old saying must be true

C C7 F
When I go home it aint no home without a woman

C G7 C
Cause my old house is just half a house without you

C7 F
Well like the world without a sound to go around

A7 D7 G7
Welcome home I still hear the echo of that faded old sound

C C7 F
Just like a ship in desert sands what can I do

C G7 C
Cause my old house is just half a house without you

Repeat

F C G7 C
Cause my old house is just half a house without you
