

I Don't Have / Anymore Love Songs

Album: Back to the Barrooms

There's been some things that I've wanted to say a long time
Never have I spent a day without you on my mind
And I've tried a lot of songs and I need to try one that's new
But I don't have any more love songs to try on you

We just can't ever get it together it seems
Your arms don't hold me the way that they do in my dreams
And it's hard to make up things that you never knew
And I don't have any more love songs to make up 'bout you

I don't have any more love songs to write for you
Too many, I wrote before have never come true

And it's hard to make up lines to things you don't do
And I don't have any more love songs to sing for you
And it's hard to make up things that you never knew
And I don't have any more love songs to sing to you
