

The Worst Is Yet To Come
 recorded by Merle Haggard
 written by Liz Anderson

C F C
 Such a little time has passed since you went away

Where are all these heartaches coming from

C F C
 I can hardly stand the pain of missing you today

G7 C
 And I know the worst is yet to come

F C
 If there was something I could find to drive these tears from me

F G7
 Then I'd go right out and get me one

C C7 F C
 I've already cried enough to fill the big blue sea

G7 C
 And I know the worst is yet to come

F C
 There'll be all those sleepless nights when I'll just lay and cry

G7
 And the hours seem to have no end

C F C
 There'll be days when it won't matter if I live or die

G7 C
 Wishing I could have you back again
