Finger Pick Intro

D// D add4 // D// D add4 // D// G// D//

(Spoken w/no music)

I remember it all started in 1929
When me and Diana came to Alaska to homestead some of this free government land.

Forty Miles from the nearest gravel [D] road.

We [G] cut our life in the [Em7] Ponderosa [A] Pines.

We [D] sweated hard to [G] beat the winter [D] snow

But the [G] cabins up and [A] we got lots of [D] time.

(Chorus)

[D] What have you got [G] planned tonight Di[D]ana

Would [G] you consider [Em7] lying in my [A] arms

I [D] love you more than [G] ever now Di[D]ana

Im [G] sure youre the [A] reason I was [D] born

[D] Jim was born the [G] first year we were [D] here

[G] Look at him. [Em7] My God, hes almost [A] grown

[D] The babys in the [G] cradle fast a[D]sleep

Just [G] think in no time [A] hell be up and [D] gone.

(Chorus)

(Spoken w/guitar)

[D] Well times sure [G] does fly, doesnt it
[D]Diana

[G] Its been almost two years now [Em7] since,
since youve been [A] gone

Speaking of time, I [D] guess you know that uh
[G]mines about up [D]

Im going to see you tonight[G]just another breath
or two[A]and Ill be home[D]

By the way

(Chorus)
