

WOULDN'T THAT BE SOMETHING

Wouldn't that be something
If I spread my wings and showed you I could fly away?
Wouldn't that be something
If I ask you to fly with me on some wild and windy day?

Wouldn't that be something
If we both fell together and you threw your arms around me like you needed me
Wouldn't that be something. Hey, wouldn't that be something?

You'd probably laugh if you could see the dream I had last night
You and I together on a maiden rocket flight
You were seated there beside me with that happy frightened look
You and I got young again on that rocket flight we took

Now Wouldn't that be something
If you would look at me and see somebody great again?
Wouldn't that be something
If you should say to me today I started loving you again?

Wouldn't that be something
If we could look inside each others minds
And always find each other when we needed to?
Wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something?

(Instrumental)

Now Wouldn't that be something
If you would look at me and see somebody great again?
Wouldn't that be something
If you should say to me today I started loving you again?

Wouldn't that be something
If we could look inside each others minds
And always find each other when we needed to?
Wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something?

Wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something?
Wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something?
Now wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something? Now wouldn't that be something? Wouldn't that be something?
