Well he rode down to Miss Mouses door, Where he had often been before

He took Miss Mousie on his knee, Said Miss Mousie will you marry me

Ill have to ask my Uncle Rat, See what he will say to that

Well, Uncle Rat laughed and shook his fat sides,

To think his niece would be a bride

Well, Uncle Rat rode off to town, To buy his niece a wedding gown

Where will the wedding supper be, Way down yonder in a hollow tree

What will the wedding supper be, A fried misquito and a roasted flea

First to come in were to little ants, Fixing around to have a dance

Next to come in was a bumble bee, Bouncing a fiddle on his knee

Next to come in was a fat sassy lad, Thinks himself as big as his dad

Thinks himself a man indeed, Because he chews the tobacco weed

And next to come in was a big tomcat,

He swallowed the frog and the mouse and the rat
