

When Scotty Goes Marching Home Again

(KEY=Em)

(sung to the tune of When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again)

<sup>Em</sup> When Scotty goes marching home again; Hurrah! Hurrah! <sup>G(III)</sup>
<sup>Em</sup> When the recall sends him home again; Hurrah! Hurrah! <sup>B7</sup>
<sup>Em</sup> The men will cheer, <sup>Am</sup> the women will shout, <sup>C</sup> the children they will dance <sup>B7</sup> about,
<sup>Em</sup> Well take <sup>D</sup> our <sup>C</sup> state <sup>B7</sup> back, <sup>Em</sup> when Scotty goes marching home.

The old church bells will ring with joy; Hurrah! Hurrah!
 To undo Scottys every ploy; Hurrah! Hurrah!
 Wisconsin lads and lassies say, With roses we will strew the way,
 Well take our state back, when Scotty goes marching home.

The Capitol doors will open wide; Hurrah! Hurrah!
 Our voices will ring out inside; Hurrah! Hurrah!
 Well sound the horns and beat the drums, well know then that our job is done
 On that joyful day, When Scotty goes marching home.

Substitutions:

Slithering, Creeping, Sniveling, Slinking, for Marching