

Unwin the Unicorn
by Ralph McTell

Have you heard the story of the unicorn
Dancing through the gardens and on the palace lawns
In the days of maybe and those that might have been Unicorns and palaces they are the stuff of dreams

Unicorns are real, if you want them to be so
Ah, but if you ever see one, won't you let me know

Just because you've never seen a unicorn
Doesn't mean to say there's never been one born
Just because you'll never see one down at the zoo
It doesn't mean to say that they can't be true

Unicorns are real, if you want them to be so
Ah, but if you ever see one, won't you let me know

Fairytales and unicorns in lands of make-believe
Oh a children's secret garden where dreams can live and breathe
Because you grow you need not go and leave them all behind
If you keep the secret door ajar to that garden in your mind

Unicorns are real, if you want them to be so
Ah, but if you ever see one, won't you let me know

They say there are no unicorns around here now
They say that they all vanished many years ago
But do not be so sure things aren't always what they seem
You may see a unicorn run dancing through your dreams

Unicorns are real, if you want them to be so
Ah, but if you ever see one, won't you let me know
