Two Of Us chords (from Let It Be)
The Beatles
Capo III *
I Dig A Pygmy by Charles Hawtrey and the Deaf Aids.
Phase one, in which Doris gets her oats.
E

E
Two of us riding nowhere
                          A   G#m   F#m
spending someone's hard earned pay
E
You and me Sunday driving
               A   G#m F#m   E   B7
Not arriving on our way back home
                                E   B7
We're on our way back home
                         E   B7
We're on our way home
                 E
We're going home

E

E
Two of us sending postcards
                     A   G#m F#m
writing letters on my wall
E
You and me burning matches
                     A   G#m F#m   E   B7
lifting latches on our way back home
                              E   B7
We're on our way back home
                         E   B7
We're on our way home
                 E
We're going home

G   Bm
You and I have memories
Em   F#m
longer that that road
                   B   B7
that stretches out ahead

E
Two of us wearing raincoats
                   A   G#m F#m
standing solo in the sun
E
You and me chasing paper
                     A   G#m F#m   E   B7
getting nowhere on our way back home
                              E   B7
We're on our way back home
                         E   B7
We're on our way home
                 E
We're going home

G   Bm
You and I have memories
Em   F#m
longer that that road
                   B   B7
that stretches out ahead

```
E
Two of us wearing raincoats
                  A   G#m F#m
standing solo in the sun
E
You and me chasing paper
                  A   G#m F#m      E    B7
getting nowhere on our way back home
                        E      B7
We're on our way back home
                    E       B7
We're on our way home
              E
We're going home

E

We're going home

E . . .

* Alternate: (original key of G)

E   = G
A   = C
G#m = Bm
F#m = Am
G   = Bb
Bm  = Dm
Em  = Gm
B7  = D7
B   = D
```