

A Little a' This 'n' That Words and Music by Pete Seeger (1991)
(c) 1991, 1993 by Sanga Music Inc.

My grandma, she can make a soup,
with a little a this n that.
She can feed the whole sloop group,
with a little a this n that.
Stone soup! You know the story.
Stone soup! Who needs the glory?
But with grandma cooking, no need to worry.
Just a little a this n that.

Grandma likes to make a garden grow,
with a little a this n that.
But she likes to have the ground just so,
with a little a this n that.
Not too loose and not too firm.
In the spring, the grounds all got to be turned.
In the fall, lots of compost, to feed the worms,
with a little a this n that.

Grandma knows we can build a future,
with a little a this n that.
And a few arguments never ever hurt ya,
with a little a this n that.
True, this worlds in a helluva fix,
And some say oil and water dont mix.
But they dont know a salad-makers tricks,
with a little a this n that.

The world to come may be like a song,
with a little a this n that.
To make evrybody want to sing along,
with a little a this n that.
A little dissonance aint no sin,
A little skylarking to give us all a grin.
Who knows but Gods got a plan for the people to win,
with a little a this n that.