MT. LEBANON, N. Y.

1. O God, Thou art my hope, In Thee I trust and live; Thou
 2. As bloom the pearl-y flow'rs Which to the sun-light turn, As
 3. Yet still, O God, I yearn For more di-vin-i-ty. For 4. Like silv-'ry stars that glow, And crown the eb-on night, So know-est ev-'ry need, And free-ly Thou dost give. When ris-es in-cense pure, From each sweet nec-tar urn, So light, and truth, and grace, To search and cov-er me. Re-shine thy gifts, O God, Thro' dark-ness un-to light. May weak, I feel Thy strength; When faint, Thou giv-est bread; When fills my soul with praise, So rise my faith and pray'r, So new my heart to-day, With ho-ly life bap-tize, That, peace and pur-est love, My soul's a-dorn-ment be; O blind, Thou sendest light To show the path I tread, To show the path I tread. grat-i-tude as-cends For all the good I share, For all the good I share.

 from the pow'r of sin, Triumphant I may rise, Triumphant I may rise.
 send by whom Thou wilt, That I may dwell in Thee, That I may dwell in Thee.
