The image displays a musical score for the song "Hilo, Boys, Hilo". It consists of three main parts: a treble clef melody, a bass clef accompaniment, and a four-staff numbered notation system.

Treble Clef Melody: The melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The melody concludes with a quarter rest.

Bass Clef Accompaniment: The accompaniment is written on a single staff with a bass clef. It begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The accompaniment concludes with a quarter rest.

Numbered Notation: Below the bass staff is a four-staff system of numbered notation. The first staff of this system contains the number 4. The second staff contains the number 4 followed by a 2. The third and fourth staves contain various numbers and symbols, including 2, 0, 1, 3, and 2, which likely represent fingerings or specific musical techniques.
