

Alabama Again, - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

ALABAMA AGAIN,

I left Alabama a long way behind me.
And my ole massa and woolly-head Ben,
They are almost crazy because they can't find me,
And I must go back to Alabama again.

Ben was my true love, and the gals all kissed him,
So I got jealous and left him soon then;
But soon after that my affections did miss him.
And I must go back to Alabama again.

Oh, kind folks, all give ear to my ditty,
If ever you're placed as I've been and am.
Never leave your ole massa and sweet little Kitty,
For she am the gal that says she loves Sam.

Oh, dear Alabama, oh, sweet Alabama.
I'm sorry that ever I left your bright plains;
And if ever I live 'till the sun shines to-morrow,
I'm going to go back to Alabama again.

FINALE.

Alabama again, Alabama again,
And if ever I live 'till the sun shines to-morrow,
I'm going to go back to Alabama again.
