American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

IS MY DARLING TRUE TO ME

Little birdie sweetly singing
In the warm and azure sky;
Have you seen my little sweetheart,
Have you watched her roaming .by?
Will she meet me in the twilight,
Shall I then my darling see?
Tell me, tell me, little birdie,
Is my darling true to me?

Chorus.
Birdie, tell me, birdie, tell me,
With your voice of melody,
Thro' the world should all forsake me,
Is ray darling true to me?

Little darling, you will know her,
Know her by her sunny eyes;
Oh, she is the fairest blossom
You could find beneath the skies.
Bear to me her loving message,
O'er the sweet and rosy lea;
Whisper, whisper, none will hear you,
Is my darling true to me?-Chorus.
