

Madam Duvan - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

MADAM DUVAN.

As sung by Put Rooney.

I have a daughter, her name is O'Holahan,
She comes out on the stage and she dances the can-can;
She can stand for three weeks on the top of her tippy toes,
And how she does it the Lord only known;
She skips around like a jumping jack.
Some day or other she'll break her back.

Chorus.

On the bills she is Madam Duvan,
And at home she is O'Holahan,
I Is my daughter, Bidy, she is so pretty,
And they say she is just like her pa.

I took my old lady to see the performance.
But my daughter she kicked up so high in the clog dance,
The old lady got scared and commenced for to cry: "hi! hi!
Look out, Bidy, there, you'll kick a hole in the sky;"
For she leaps around like a jumping jack.
For she fell last week on the broad of her back. -Chorus.
