ONLY TO SEE HER FACE AGAIN.
Copyright, 1880, by Geo. D. Newhall & Co.

Only to see her face again, only to hear her speak,
Only to see her smile once more, only to hear her speak.
She was as fair as a sunny flower, full of beauty And of grace,
One little wish is all I ask-only to see her face.

Chorus.
Only to see her face again, full of beauty and of grace;
One little wish is all I ask-only to see her face.

Only to see her face again, fair as the stars above.
Only to hear her one little word, only one word of love.
Sad was the night when we parted down by the old trysting place;
One little word is all I ask-only to see her face.-Chorus.
