

A Letter - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

A LETTER.

Copyright, 1892, by Willis Woodward & Co.

Words by Mai Fai. Music by Adam Geibel.

I sent a letter home to thee, between its lines Thou'lt read a tale;
A loving message from the sea, by carrier-dove And spreading sail.

Chorus.

Speed, sweet dove, O speed across the waters blue, bearer of my love, so true.
Speed, sweet dove, O speed across the waters blue, bearer of my love, so true

Then perched aloft on flowing sail, should storm presage thy ship to stay,
As messenger of precious mail-spread out thy wings und fly away.- Chorus.

Her lowly cottage seek by day, and serenade her dreams by night;
Her exiled lover far away fain would return In Loving plight.-Chorus.