

Sweetheart Lou - song lyrics

American Old-time song lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

SWEETHEART LOU.

Copyright, 1896, by Waverly Music Co.

Words and Music by Richard R. Elanch.

A pretty little charmer with blue eyes,
That's Louise, my sweetheart Lou;
A girl who makes you think that she's an angel in disguise,
Is winsome Lou, the one that I adore;
Her smile is like a burst of sunlight
From gloomy skies above;
In all this world there's not one girl
Can compare with Lou, the one I love.

Chorus.

Sweetheart Lou, I love you;
Days come, days go, still my love remains the same;
The sun shines brighter, my heart seems lighter
Ever since you came.

Some day we'll have a cozy little home,
Just us two, my sweetheart Lou;
You'll be the queen, my darling, and I'll worship at your throne,
Love will reign supreme forevermore;
Your heart will never know a sorrow
While I am by your side;
I'll always love you, darling mine,
No matter whate'er may betide.- Chorus.