ONLY ONE BOY; WHOSE GIRL I'D LIKE TO BE.

Cops right, 1895, by H. W. Petrie.

Written and Composed by May Bremer

There's only one boy in the world whose girl I'd like to be;
I'd live a very lonely life if he goes back on me;
But he is kind and good and true, and very faithful too;
Of my heart he is the joy and life, and to him I'll be (rue.

Chorus.

There's only one boy whose girl I'd like to be.

For he's the only buy in all this world to me;

At dances and at patties you're sure to always see

There's only one boy whose girl I'd like to be.

His eyes are of the darkest brown, that beams with love so true;
And when he looks and smiles at me, you wish Hint it was you.
he likes to lease me now and then, but yet he is to me
The only boy in this great world whose girl I'd like to be.- Chorus.
