MY DAD'S THE ENGINEER.

Copyright, MDCCCXCV, by Henry J. Wehman.

Words and Music by Charles Graham.

We were none of as thinking of danger,
As the train sped on in the night,
'Till the flames from a burning forest
Made the passengers wild with fright,
Then a tiny maid near a window, with a smile, said,
There's nothing to fear;
I'm sure that no harm will befall you.
My Dad's the engineer."

Refrain.

"Daddy's on the engine, don't be afraid;
Daddy knows what he is doing," said the little maid;
"We'll soon be out of danger, don't you ever fear;
Every one is safe, because my Dad's the engineer."

With the sparks falling closely about us,
Thro' the flames we sped on so fast,
And the brave little maid's father
Brought as thro' the danger all safe at last;
And the proud, sweet face of his lassie,
And the words of the calm, little dear,
Will live in my mem'ry forever,
' My Dad's the engineer." -Refrain.
