

If I Pass This Way Again
Words and Music by Tom Paxton

I'm so glad to see you, glad that I was passing through,
Makes me smile to think of how I just ran into you.
Makes me happy every time I make another friend,
And I'll be glad to see you if I pass this way again.

Chorus:

If I pass this way again, if I pass this way again,
I will surely come and see you if I pass this way again.
If I pass this way again, if I pass this way again,
I will surely come and see you if I pass this way again.

Sure, the road gets dusty so my feet get tired and sore;
Sometimes I get to wondering what I keep on wandering for.
Then I meet somebody who will be there till the end,
And I'll be glad to see you if I pass this way again.

Chorus

Bridge: Oh Lord, you know the road gets rough and rocky.
Lord, you left some mighty hills to climb.
Folks of flesh and bone cannot climb these hills alone;
We're gonna need each other every time.

Got no way of knowing what is waiting round the bend;
If the road be straight and long or if it has an end.
Still we've got each other and on that we can depend,
And I'll be glad to see you if I pass this way again.

Chorus
